

EDITORIAL

To enhance the enthusiasm of the authors in submitting their articles to be published in Folia Medica Indonesiana, the Medical Research Unit of Airlangga University School of Medicine, a unit whose duty is to endorse medical research in this medical school, will perform appraisal to all scientific articles that have been published in Folia Medica Indonesiana. The appraisal will be carried out once a year, started to the articles published from 1997 to 1998. The winner is qualified to receive award from The Dean of Airlangga University School of Medicine, and his/her name will be published in Folia Medica Indonesiana. We hope that this award may encourage eagerness in writing and submitting articles to this medical journal.
