E-Monev Program Pembangunan Pada Pemerintahan Lokal Dalam Rangka Meningkatkan Akuntabilitas

Abstrak:

Regional autonomy demands a regional capacity building in financial management and the quality and capacity of regional officials in carrying out the process of development and public services. The challenge faced by the management of regional development, one that urgent attention is the problem of the implementation process of development to the technical level. Attention to these aspects are critical to the success of the implementation process of regional development. E-monitoring and evaluation is the use of information technology in government. E-monitoring and evaluation program to support the operations of government from planning, implementation and evaluation and policy control. E-monitoring and evaluation purposes a) Improve the ability of government officials in monitoring, control and evaluation of the implementation of development projects; b) To provide facilities for the needs of an inventory of all data related to the implementation of development projects; c) To provide facilities for the entire reporting process execution data a development project that is accurate, fast and precise and easily understandable for policy-making; d) Setting up of local government administrative system that led to the realization of the concept of e-governance (electronic governance);
e) Improve the ability of the government apparatus resources in the field of Information Technology mastery based computer application systems. This research uses descriptive qualitative approach to identify those aspects required to create an e-monitoring and evaluation program on local governance. Results from this study concluded that the e-monitoring and evaluation programs can improve performance and accountability of local governments to implement development programs

Keyword:

Daftar Pustaka: