

INFORMASI DAN HOMOSEKSUAL â€“ GAY (Studi Etnometodologi Mengenai Informasi dan Gay Pada Komunitas GAYa Nusantara Surabaya)

Abstrak :

Human life is not limited to white and black people only. There are other people's lives is often underestimated because they are different. Minority communities is a society that is considered deviant behavior. One is a group of homosexuals. The difference in sexual orientation, same-sex love making them vulnerable to social discrimination from the dominant society's ruling. The views heteronormativitas the view that heterosexuality is a form of legal relationship, not at all questionable frequently makes them marginalized. The study titled Information and Homosexual - Gay (Ethnomethodology Studies Regarding Information and Gay In Gaya Nusantara Community Surabaya) seeks to reveal how gay will interpret the information. The study was conducted in the style community Gaya Nusantara archipelago Surabaya as a pioneer of gay organizations in Indonesia. As well as a community to be reckoned with in the international. In the present study found a variety of views on information about the lives of gay analyzed using several theories including Erving Goffman's dramaturgical approach. Other findings explain the symbols that are often used by homosexual - gay as part of their information. This study also presents a variety of information about the world of gay, including what are the needs, how their relationship and information about their life style.

Keyword :

Daftar Pustaka :

Julia T. Wood Gendered Lives: Communication, Gender & Culture Wadsworth Engage Learning 2005 America
Mulyana, Dedi. Metodologi Penelitian Kualitatif, Paradigma Baru Ilmu Komunikasi dan Ilmu Sosial Lainnya Remaja Rosdakarya 2001 Bandung